

Is my roommate in an abusive relationship?

Is this a normal relationship?

If I'm not getting hit, is it still abuse?

Why is it hard to leave an abusive relationship?

How can I help?

What is relationship abuse?

Attention Stanford House/Dorm Staff!

Do you have the answers to these questions? As a member of house/dorm staff, students may ask you these questions at some point during the year. Learn how to accurately respond to these concerns and more at the...

Relationship Abuse Training Seminar

An educational opportunity for house and dormitory staff to learn how to effectively address relationship abuse and gender issues on campus.

When: Saturday, January 23rd

Where: Education Room, Vaden Health Center, 2nd floor

Who: The Center for Relationship Abuse Awareness

Time: 9:30am-6:00pm (Free lunch included)

- Great Leadership Opportunity: Represent your dorm/house staff!
- Become trained as a campus resource for students and staff.
- All staff positions, majors and backgrounds welcome.
- Male students encouraged!

Think relationship abuse doesn't happen at Stanford? Think again! 1 in 3 college women experience relationship abuse. This seminar is designed to deconstruct the myths surrounding relationship abuse and dating violence in order to make Stanford campus a safe and enjoyable environment.

Topics Covered:

- ❖ Dynamics of Relationship Abuse & Dating Violence
- ❖ Abuser Accountability
- ❖ How to Help a Friend
- ❖ Campus-Specific Issues
- ❖ Legal Issues
- ❖ Safety Planning
- ❖ Stanford protocol
- ❖ Same-sex abuse
- ❖ Referrals & Resources
- ❖ Dorm programming